

2017 1 oz Silver Maple Leaf

Since their release in 1988, Silver Maple Leafs have seen worldwide popularity. Their high Silver content and beautiful, classic design made them an instant hit and they have seen continued success ever since.

Canadian Maple Leafs contain security features not found on other bullion items. The small maple leaf privy mark, which first appeared on the 2013 Silver Maple Leaf, shows a "17" when viewed under magnification. This number changes to correspond to the mint year. There is also a radial line background that creates a unique light diffracting pattern, providing another measure of security.
