

1 oz Austrian Gold Philharmonic (Random Year)

Great Organ of the Golden Hall

1 oz of
.9999 fine
Gold

Random Year

Denomination varies (prior to 2002 is 2000
schilling; 2002
to present is 100
euro)

Orchestral instruments:
cello, violin, harp,
French horn and
bassoon

Created in 1989 as a tribute to the renowned Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra, the Gold Philharmonic coin is loved around the world for its beautiful design and .9999 fine Gold content. Each coin features a depiction of the Great Organ of the Musikverein, home to the Vienna Philharmonic, and also displays a variety of orchestral instruments.

Since their initial release, Gold Philharmonics have seen worldwide popularity. In 1992, 1995 and 1996, the 1 oz Gold Philharmonic was the best selling Gold coin in the world, according to the World Gold Council. These random year coins perfectly combine collectible beauty with investor appeal. Bring home a piece of iconic Austrian heritage with this spectacular coin.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The Gold Philharmonic is one of the world's favorite Gold bullion products.
- Each coin contains 1 oz of .9999 fine Gold.
- Celebrates the musical heritage of Vienna.

SPECIFICATIONS

ACTUAL GOLD WEIGHT: 1 troy oz

PURITY: .9999 fine Gold

FACE VALUE: Denomination varies

DIAMETER: 37 mm

THICKNESS: 2 mm

PRODUCT ID: 13

APMEX®
Investments You Hold™

MÜNZE
ÖSTERREICH