100 oz Silver content

.999 fine Silver

At .999 fine, these are among the purest Silver bars minted anywhere. With .999 fine being the standard purity for Silver bullion items, these 100 oz Silver bars are ideal for an investment portfolio and are easy to sell back when needed. Additionally, larger Silver bars allow investors to acquire more Silver with just one purchase.

With origins dating back to 1817, Johnson Matthey is one of the leading refiners of Precious Metals. They back the weight, purity and authenticity of each of their Silver bars. These 100 oz Silver bars have been made in the classic poured style, meaning not all bars will be exactly uniform. This adds some interest to these great bullion products.
