Since 1990, the Silver Australian Kookaburra has been a popular series worldwide and is the longest-running bullion series from The Perth Mint. Each year features a new design of a kookaburra, making this a perfect collectible. Additionally, special releases feature a unique privy mark, adding further appeal to the changing designs. This 2017 Silver Kookaburra features a panda privy mark, celebrating the 2017 Beijing International Coin Exposition, and has been graded a perfect MS-70 by PCGS with a special APMEXclusive® Kookaburra Label.

The Perth Mint was established as a branch of the Royal Mint of London in 1899, after the opening of sister mints in Sydney and Melbourne. It remained under the jurisdiction of the Royal Mint until 1970. In the mid-1980s, the Perth Mint ceased production of circulating coins. Since then, the mint has produced Proof and bullion coins including the Gold Kangaroos, Gold Lunars and of course Silver Kookaburras.
