Since their release in 1988, Silver Maple Leafs have seen worldwide popularity. Their high Silver content and beautiful design made them an instant hit and they have seen continued success ever since. To celebrate the 30th anniversary of this popular coin, the Royal Canadian Mint partnered with APMEX to release a special two-coin set that features the classic visual but adds elements never before seen on the Silver Maple Leaf coin.

The set includes a 1 oz Proof Silver Maple Leaf and a 1 oz Reverse Proof Silver Maple Leaf. The backgrounds of both coins feature a repeating pattern of a maple leaf with the number 30. This pattern provides a unique twist to the now-familiar radial lines that have graced Silver Maple Leaf coins since 2014. The mint produced just 5,000 sets, though only 1,500 are available in the United States, exclusively through APMEX.
